BJP, VHP leaders flag off yatra for Ram temple

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
LUCKNOW, FEBRUARY 13

BJP AND Vishwa Hindu Parishad leaders on Tuesday attended the inauguration of 'Ram Rajya Rath Yatra' with VHP general secretary Champat Rai flagging off the event in Ayodhya.

The yatra, organised by Maharashtra-based Shri Ramdas Mission Universal Society, will conclude at Rameshwaram in Tamil Nadu on March 22 after covering six states.

The 'rath' is a replica of the proposed Ram temple.

While its main agenda is to administer a pledge to the people for construction of the Ram temple on the disputed land in Ayodhya, it also seeks to re-establish 'Ram Rajya', include Ramayana in school syllabus, declare Thursday as the official weekly off in the place of Sunday and observe 'National Hindu Day'.

The organisation had initially invited Chief Minister Yogi Adityanath to flag off the yatra.

Faizabad BJP MP Lallu Singh, Ayodhya's BJP Mayor Rishikesh Upadhyay and leaders of local party units attended the ceremony along with VHP secretary (central) Ashok Tiwari, several saints and religious leaders. All of them took the pledge to build the Ram temple.

Tiwari said that during the ceremony, it was decided by the organisers that at every stop, local residents will be administered a pledge for the construction of Ram temple "as a reply to the attack on temples by foreign invaders".

"Though many Hindu temples were destroyed by invaders and it is not possible to restore them all, we at least want temples in Ayodhya, Mathura and Kashi to be rebuilt," Tiwari said.

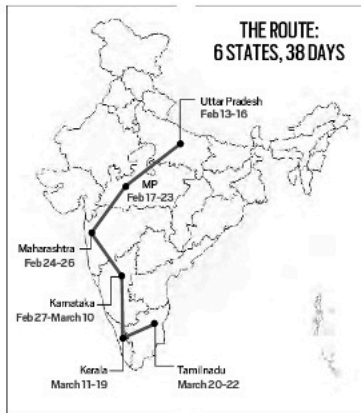

Claiming that BJP or VHP is not directly associated with the yatra, BJP MP Lallu Singh told said: "The programme will encourage people towards bringing 'Ram Rajya', which was approved by Gandhi and Lohia as the best possible rule... Therefore, we decided to be a part of it."

"The yatra is for a good cause... to bring back 'Ram Rajya'... and will travel through the same route that Ram had taken for his journey to Lanka. I personally support such religious causes and being the MP from Faizabad, when I received an invitation to be a part of it, I happily accepted," he added.

VHP spokesperson Sharad Sharma said: "We are not organising the yatra, but we are supporting and cooperating with it."

Sources said VHP members have been asked to welcome the rath when it passes through their states.

With Aadhaar Act, consent is illusory: Sibal in apex court

CJI heads bench hearing pleas challenging Aadhaar Act

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
NEW DELHI, FEBRUARY 13

THE SUPREME COURT on Tuesday sought to know whether the right of people to remain anonymous will come in the way of the state identifying beneficiaries for providing social welfare benefits.

"You are claiming that preservation of an anonymity is part of Article 21. Ancillary question to this would be whether that would not come into conflict with the identification of beneficiaries for social welfare measures," Chief Justice of India Dipak Misra asked senior advocate Gopal Subramanian, who was appearing for some of the petitioners. CJI Misra is heading a five-judge Constitution bench hearing a batch of petitions challenging the Aadhaar Act.

lowered by Israel had provisions for both who give consent and those who do not. But with Aadhaar Act, he said, "consent is illusory". Sibal said, "I don't think anybody can say the state cannot ask for an identity. But it should be such as to ensure my identity is not in public place... is not centralised."

While issues such as national security, revenue etc are important, there is also the question of personal information, he submitted. "My fundamental identity is that I am a citizen of this country. My name is on the electoral roll, which is part of my citizenship. How then can they say, 'unless you have Aadhaar, we won't accept voters ID,'" he asked. Sibal said, "(The) state cannot choose how I prove my citizenship. Nobody can question that. Proof of citizenship is of satisfaction. "Parliament can pass laws, but state has to justify that", the judge said.

Sibal's Aadhaar, the person ceases to exist. How can you justify such a power? The State cannot ensure PDS reaches the right people, why should I have Aadhaar? Failure of the State cannot be the basis of a monopoly of this nature." The senior counsel contended that making the unique identity mandatory had no nexus with providing subsidies. Referring to Section 7 of Aadhaar Act, which empowers the government to require a person to furnish Aadhaar for giving benefits, services or subsidy for which the expenditure is incurred from the Consolidated Fund of India, Sibal asked what then will be the state of a public-private partner-
